

Kristin Calkins lives in North Danville and spent many years overseas designing and guiding trips for VBT biking tours. She stays busy as a brand copywriter for travel, hospitality, and wellness companies. Outside of work, she likes to gravel bike, ski, and read old church cookbooks, but admits equal appreciation for motorized activities. She’s grateful to live in a small town with a vibrant working landscape—farms, fields, forests and local businesses run by talented people.

“I’m running for Select Board because it’s the right time in life to step up and serve my neighbors, helping to keep Danville moving forward in a positive, practical way. I don’t come with a personal or political agenda—I’m committed to listening first, following the town plan, and approaching issues with common sense and respect for all voices.”
