Color Our World with Adventures in our Summer Reading Program!

We are excited to kick off the 2025 Summer Reading program on Monday, June 23 at 9:30am. Books are magical and so is Axel the Stupendous! Come enjoy a magic show with us at the library and pick up your passport to track your reading adventures this summer.

Challenge accepted. Creativity unleashed. Lego Challenge starts at 1:30pm on Monday, July 14. We will have LEGO's and DUPLO blocks available to accommodate various age groups.

Monday, July 21 at 1:30 wear clothes that can get dirty as we believe art is inspired by the wild. That's right, come and paint a canvas using paint brushes you create with items found in the great outdoors.

Local author Maggie Keefe will join us at the library on Monday, August 4 at 9:30am. Come listen to her bring her Clever Cat Chronicles books to life and stay for craft following!

Thanks to the Vermont Department of Libraries we are creating STEAM boxes that you are able to check out and take home, just like a book. These will be ready on June 23 for our Summer Reading Kick Off! Each box includes books and hands-on manipulatives designed to engage and inspire your child. We have various themes and age appropriate boxes - can't wait for you to check them out!

The library is now open the second and fourth Saturdays of the month from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. ; Tuesday and Thursday hours are now 10am-2 pm.; and Wednesday nights we are open from 6-8pm. We would love to be open more hours. Please contact us if you are interested in helping out a few hours a week. We will provide the training- it is fun and not at all difficult!

E-Books and Audiobooks

The Palace Project allows our patrons to check out e-books and audiobooks from home. There is a wide selection of books of all genres and for all ages. Please visit the Palace Project page to learn more and to create a virtual library card.

There is much more information on our website and our Facebook page including a listing of all our new books.

The Brainerd Memorial Library is open to all and becoming a library patron is free.
